Consumer Advisory Wording and Signage

If raw, undercooked or food cooked-to-order is served, insert the following statement at the bottom of menus (including take-out menus) and on menu boards:

1. Asterisk (*) food items such as hamburgers, steaks or eggs that may be cooked to order, raw fish, shellfish, and raw egg Caesar salad.

“*These items are cooked to order and may be served raw or undercooked. Consuming raw or undercooked meats, poultry, seafood, shellfish, or eggs may increase your risk of foodborne illness.”

- Post the statement in the exact wording provided and no smaller than size 11 font (the same size as this type).

Allergen Awareness Wording and Signage

Post the following statement in menus, on the menu board, or at the counter where food is ordered (use the exact wording):

“Before placing your order, please inform your server if a person in your party has a food allergy.”

- Post in lettering that is no smaller than the smallest font on the menu or menu board. Ensure the customer can read it.

Recent Inspection Availability and Signage

Post the following statement on a sign or place card in the food establishment with large enough lettering for the customer's to be able to read it:

“A copy of our most recent health inspection report is available upon request.”

The following pages provide examples of appropriate Allergen Awareness Signage and Recent Inspection Availability Signage. Please feel free to print and post the following statements:
